THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Two colored men, named Joseph Goode and Nash Bell, were arrested on a charge of larceny. It is alleged that they were accomplices of Massey Carter, who was convicted of breaking into the house of Annie Connell several weeks ago.

Building permits were issued yesterday to A. Canale, to erect a four-story building at Seventh and N streets, $5,000; Samuel Owens, to erect a dwelling on Brentwood road, $1,200; John Scanlon, to erect a dwelling on Twenty-fifth street, near H, $2,000; Mrs. Herman Dieblich, repairs to 1429 Ninth street.

Chief Marshal Dennis Connell and Asst-ant Marshals Patrick Meenan and William Smith called on the district commissioners yesterday afternoon and got permission for the members of the different Irish societies, who are employees of the district, to turn out on St. Patrick's day. They also got the same privilege from the different departments.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Two Men Buried Under Four Feet of Earth and Gravel.

A frightful accident occurred yesterday at 10:30 a. m., in which Richard Crump and Cornelius Fitzpatrick lost their lives. These men, with others, were engaged in digging out gravel from under a bank about twenty-five feet high on North Capitol street, near New York avenue. The men, it was stated, had been warned of the danger in touching the bank while the ground was so soft by Mr.
Brennan, the man in charge, but, thinking it safe, insisted on continuing the work. They were working about four feet below the surface, when it was discovered that the bank above was giving way. The alarm was immediately given, and the others rushed out; but Crump and Fitzpatrick, too much alarmed to stir, were buried beneath four feet of falling earth and instantly killed. The bodies were recovered as soon as possible and taken to the seventh precinct station, where an inquest will be held to-day. Both men leave families.

Nothing is ever lost by being pleasant and agreeable, which accounts for the remarkable sale of the great national remedy, Dr. J. C. Smith's Syrup, a safe, pleasant, and successful cure for coughs and colds. Price, only 25 cents a bottle.

High Mass Over the Late Charles Demonet.

Solemn mass of requiem was celebrated over the remains of Charles J. Demonet at St.
Matthew's church yesterday at 11 a. m.
Fathers Boland, Tarr, and Tavis officiating.
The coffin was covered with flowers, beautifully arranged. There were numerous other floral tributes of great beauty and various designs. The church was filled with friends of the deceased. Father Boland preached the funeral sermon. After the ceremonies the body was taken to Mount Olivet cemetery for interment. The pallbearers were Messrs. E.
J. Harmon, Thomas J. King, Thomas H.
Byrne, T. J. Fallon, all of the Carroll Institute, and Messrs. Clark and Herlihy, of the Catholic knights. A large number of friends followed the remains to the grave. Members of the Carroll Institute and of the Catholic knights, to which bodies the deceased formerly belonged, attended the funeral in great numbers.

the week was 90—55 white and 44 colored.

ored, and 25.74 for the total population.

Lynch and Mackall.

The case of Mr. John Lynch, of the Terra Cotta works, vs. Mr. Brooks Mackall found its way to the equity court yesterday. Mr.
W. Willoughby, counsel for Mackall, filed a bill against Fauny S. Burch and John Lynch, asking the specific performance of a contract and for an injunction against the using of any lease or disturbing plaintiff in possession of the premises as long as he complies with the terms of his lease. He also asks that the lease of Mr. Lynch be canceled, and that he be enjoined. Judge MacArthur made a temporary restraining order.
